GENERAL RULES

- The Board of Directors (Fair Board) reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard thereto. It further reserves the right to amend or add to these rules as in its judgment.
- All exhibits must fit into classes listed in the fair book and only one entry is allowed in each class unless stated in that section.
- No bike riding will be allowed.
- Curfew will be 11:30 p.m. anyone not abiding by this curfew will be penalized as deemed appropriate by the Fair Board. All fair participants must be chaperoned according to the camping rules if they are staying overnight at the fairgrounds.
- No dogs will be allowed on the fairgrounds the week of the fair except for dog show participants during the scheduled show and service dogs.
- All fair class entries must be submitted online through gcffy.fairentry.com by 11:59 p.m. on their due dates shown in Fair Entry. Any entry received after this time will not be accepted and you will not be eligible to show at GCFY.
- For animal registration guidelines see livestock requirements.

EXHIBITOR REQUIREMENTS

- All exhibitors must be between the ages of 8 and 19 years old as of January 1 of the current year, unless otherwise noted, and must be residents of Gratiot County, a member of a Gratiot County 4-H Club or FFA Chapter, live in a Gratiot County school district or attend a Gratiot County school.
- Young exhibitors between the ages of 5 and 7 years old will exhibit as Peewees. Peewees are not eligible for fair auctions. Exhibitors aged 8 years old have the choice to exhibit as a Peewee or as a regular fair exhibitor.
- All show participants must be Gratiot County Fair for Youth exhibitors.
- All fair exhibitors are to abide by the rules and regulations in the fair book.
- Any exhibitor showing disrespectful and/or unsportsmanlike behavior as deemed by the Fair Board may be asked to remove themselves from the fairgrounds and forfeit all awards.
- There will be a $10 entry fee per exhibitor; this must be paid through gcffy.fairentry.com upon registration or in the Fair Office prior to registration.
- All exhibitors must check the Fair Release/Indemnification (hold harmless) online at gcffy.fairentry.com. All exhibitors are responsible for reading the fair book and acknowledging online (signing) that you have read and reviewed the fair book in its entirety.

CAMPING AND PARKING

- Camping is by reservation only.
- Two camping area parking permits will be provided with the camping fee.
- Parking passes will be available for pre-sale at the Fair Office and can also be purchased at the gate during fair.

(Excluding rabbits, cavies, pocket pets, poultry & dairy)

Poultry, Rabbit & Cavy Registration June 20, 2026

 Due dates are for all classes within the species unless otherwise noted. (Ex. Market, showmanship, skills, record book, etc.)

 Futurity registration has the same deadline as the specie specific deadline. (Beef – February 25 and Goat & Sheep May 5)

- EAR TAG INFORMATION – All cattle, goats and sheep shall bear official USDA identification before they leave their home premises. Swine require official USDA identification prior to being exhibited.
- Call 1-989-785-5616 to receive a National Premises Registration Number and place a tag order.
- The exhibitor is responsible for retagging their animal in the case of the loss of the USDA approved official ear tag identification.
- If the animal has lost a GCFFY ear tag, the exhibitor must contact the Fair Office and/or the species superintendent immediately to get another GCFFY tag and then retag the animal.
- All livestock exhibitors must follow requirements as defined by the Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development. Complete requirements are found on-line at https://www.michigan.gov/mdard/0,4610,7-125-48096_49214-401893--,00.html or by contacting the Fair Office.
- An exhibitor in market beef, dairy feeder, sheep, and swine projects may register up to FOUR animals per species to be used for primary or secondary projects.
- An animal can be registered on more than one exhibitor's form as long as the animals are housed at one site.
- Animal cages/pens/stalls will be assigned by the species superintendent the Wednesday prior to start of the fair. No decorating of pens is allowed before assignments are made. Pen decorations must not present a hazard to animals or visitors. Changes may be made by superintendents if need arises.
- Hooves must be trimmed and body clipping must be done before check-in.
- All animals must be fed, watered and pens cleaned by 9:00 a.m. Animals and pens must be monitored throughout the day and evening to ensure cleanliness and proper care. If not, the superintendent will first notify the exhibitor by placing a yellow tag on their pen or stall. Exhibitors who receive a yellow tag must immediately take care of their animal and then promptly contact the superintendent. For the second offense, a red tag will be placed on their pen/stall. The exhibitor must meet with the superintendent and a representative of the Fair Board to determine further action, including, but not limited to, any amount over market value received for the animal sold may be withheld from their sale check.
- Each exhibitor is responsible for feeding and bedding their own animal until release time. Bedding is to be approved by the species superintendent and must be provided by the exhibitor.
- No one except for the exhibitor, his/her family members, leaders (where leaders are defined as an individual who is registered as a leader with the Gratiot County MSU Extension 4-H Office and has been through the MSU Extension Volunteer Selection Process), FFA Advisors, or fellow exhibitors may groom animals during fair week and the exhibitor must be present. Any exhibitor who is in violation of this rule will not be allowed to sell in the sale and any awards will be forfeited.
- Exhibitors are responsible for bringing their own hose for the wash rack. There will be no hoses provided.
- Exhibitors or ring help are the only people allowed in the ring, if an animal is out of control, it will be tied to the rail or will be excused.
- Animals must be free from parasites, contagious diseases or infections, or they will be sent home.
- Horns or scurs on cattle (dairy, beef, or dairy feeder) must be shorter than 1" from the hairline. Any animals with longer horns will be sent home.
- Goats may be shown with or without horns. Goats which have been dehorned must be completely healed.
- All market livestock must be castrated.
- Animals will be sent home, at the discretion of the superintendent and/or the Fair Board, anytime during the week if determined to be a safety hazard or health risk to the public, exhibitors or other animals.
- Any animal which becomes sick or severely injured during the fair will be sent home.
- Superintendents may combine classes for the purposes of judging.
- Record books are required for all market animals. See the Record Book section for more information. Poultry, rabbits and cavies will be doing educational posters instead of record books. YQCA is no longer an option.
- All barns must be cleaned and power washed within 7 days concluding fair. If failure to have the barn power washed in that time frame the cost will be split amongst the exhibitors in the barn and deducted from each exhibitor's check in that barn to get the power washing done.
- Show order will be showmanship, breeding, market then futurity for beef, dairy, dairy feeders, sheep and swine.

MARKET ANIMAL

- Follow livestock rules listed above
- Exhibitors with market animals: beef, dairy feeders, sheep, swine and goats, must have animals tagged with a GCFY tag, have animal photographed and be registered through www.gcffy.fairentry.com by the deadline for each species. The fair will accept late registration entries for 30 calendar days after the deadline with a $10 per day fee; payable to the fair before registration is accepted.
- Drug testing may be performed on market animals at any time while on fairgrounds. Any animal found to be in violation, will be disqualified. All medication/drug withdrawal requirements must be met by check-in. Any animal containing substances at any level not in compliance with United States Food and Drug Administration and/or United States Department of Agriculture Food Safety Inspection Service safety standards; illegal substances and or tampered with animals will be disqualified. Any monies and awards awarded to the individuals, including proceeds will be forfeited.
- Only one large market animal may be exhibited per exhibitor.
- See showmanship rules.

FUTURITY

- Open to all market beef, market goats and market sheep born on a farm in Gratiot County. Each species will show in an additional class separate from their market class.
- The applicable species-specific form must be filled out and submitted, as directed, by the deadline stated on the form. The form can be found at www.gcffy.org, under "Registration Dates/Fair Forms." Once the form is turned in the fair office will register the exhibitor into the class in Fair Entry.
- A Grand and Reserve Champion will be selected.
- Placing in this class will not affect the sale order.

NON-MARKET ANIMAL

- Follow livestock rules listed above
- Exhibitors showing any non-market animals in beef, goat and sheep must be registered through gcffy.fairentry.com by June 5.
- Breeding Stock may not be registered by an exhibitor in more than one class.
- Registration papers must be in the exhibitor's immediate family's name or farm name and must be shown to the superintendent upon arrival.
- Any animals without registration papers MUST show in the Crossbred.
- Breeding stock animals can be housed at the fairgrounds for the entire week if room permits.

SHOWMANSHIP RULES

- Exhibitors may ONLY show their own animals in showmanship classes. These animals MUST ALSO be registered and shown in a market (unless it does not make weight), breed, halter and/or pet class. This does NOT include sweepstakes or Peeweews.
- Showmanship classes will be set up in chronological order according to age. If the showmanship class needs to be broken into more than one class, superintendents will post class lists in barns.

Show Ring and Sale Ring Dress Code:

- Appropriate footwear is required. No open toe style such as sandals, flip-flops, crocs, etc.
- Exposed undergarments are NOT permitted.
- Conspicuously thin garments, bare midriffs, swimsuits or halter tops are NOT permitted.
- Show attire regulations that are species specific can be found under each species guideline.
- Exhibitors may be asked to change prior to entering show or auction ring.

Showmanship Divisions

Senior Showmanship (15-19); Intermediate Showmanship (12-14); Junior Showmanship (8-11)

SHOWMANSHIP SWEEPSTAKES

Superintendent: Angela Aubin

Superintendent: Martha Stellow

- Large Animal Sweepstakes includes the first-place winners in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Showmanship Division in the Beef, Sheep, Dairy Feeder, Swine, Dairy and Horse classes.
- Small Animal Sweepstakes includes the first-place winners in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Showmanship Division for Cats, Dogs, Goats, Poultry and Rabbits.
- Participants will be entered by the species superintendent.
- The first-place showmanship winner in each species must sign the declaration form at the completion of their species showmanship. At this time, if the exhibitor waives their right to show in the sweepstakes class, then the next placed exhibitor will then be eligible to show in the sweepstakes class.
- The first species in which you declare to show in the sweepstakes class is the species you will compete in.

LIVESTOCK AUCTION

- For an animal to be eligible for the Livestock Auction, the exhibitor must have shown that same species in showmanship.
- All animals must be shown in market class by the exhibitor to be eligible to be sold in the Livestock Auction. The exhibitor must be the owner of the animal.
- Any exhibitor selling an animal(s) at the GCFFY Livestock Auction must turn in a completed current year GCFFY record book or Educational Poster (for poultry and rabbits/cavies only) for every species sold by the exhibitor. This includes participants in the dairy bucket.
- A 5% commission will be deducted from all sale lots by the GCFFY. Insurance and mandatory animal check-off programs will also be deducted if applicable.
- Exhibitors relinquish ownership and all rights to exhibits immediately upon sale. Exhibitors cannot request use or possession of exhibits from the buyer. Exhibitors must take care of animals until animal is removed by the buyer or shipped.
- Sale order in large animals will be determined in each species as follows: champion market first, reserve champion market second, champion showman third and other animals to follow.
- If an animal will NOT be sold, it must be pulled out within 1 hour of the end of the market classes and will be charged $250/animal cash or card before the animal leaves the grounds. The Grand and Reserve market animals MUST sell.
- Exhibitors who miss their lot in the sale order will sell last in their species and a 20% of sale penalty will be assessed on the sale of the missed lot. If exhibitor misses their species in the sale order, they will not sell.
- Exhibitor checks will be made out to the exhibitor as listed on gffy.fairentry.com and will be mailed to the address listed in gffy.fairentry.com.
- Exhibitors are limited to the sale of one large animal project (beef, dairy feeder, beef, sheep or swine) and two small animal projects (rabbits, poultry or goats).

FORMAL PROTEST

- Before a formal protest is filed, any problems or concerns should be addressed with the superintendent of the department. If a resolution cannot be achieved, you have the right to file a formal protest.
- A person compelled to bring a complaint regarding conflict of interest of the judge, disqualification of an exhibit or exhibitor, exhibitor, group leader or superintendent's behavior, or eligibility of an exhibit shall make a formal protest in writing to the Fair Office no later than ten days following the end of fair. For drug testing, all protests need to be submitted to the Fair Office, no later than 1 hour after the conclusion of that species market show.
- A person making a formal protest shall deposit a sum of $100.00 along with the cost of any testing and veterinarian or other expenses. If the protest is sustained the deposit shall be returned to the complainant. If it is not sustained the deposit shall be forfeited.
- All protests shall be referred to the fair's Executive Committee, which shall review the protest with interested parties and give parties an opportunity to submit evidence. The party against whom the protest was filed shall have the right to read the statement of protest.
- A report of findings shall be made to the Fair Board for final decision on the protest within 10 days of the original complaint or after test results are received. The Fair Board shall issue an opinion within 2 weeks of receiving the recommendations from the Executive Committee.
- A complainant may file an appeal to the Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development within 45 days of filing the initial complaint if the exhibitor is not satisfied with the Fair Board's action. MDARD shall have 60 days after receipt of any appropriately filed appeal to investigate the complaint and issue a finding of fact and notice of department action and any recommended actions.

DAIRY

Superintendent: Nicole Vanderploeg

Assistant Superintendent: Jennifer Whitford

- Dairy exhibitors will be limited to a 4 head maximum, with no more than 1 entry per class.
- Only Ayrshire, Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Jersey, Milking Shorthorn or Holstein may show as a DAIRY heifer/cow. Beef crossbreds will be sent home.
- Show Ring Dress Code: white shirt and white pants
- One dairy lot will be sold at the fair's Livestock Auction. Sale proceeds (less the 5% sale commission) will be distributed as follows:
 - 20% will be retained by the Gratiot Dairy 4-H Club to be used for club development, promotion, and scholarships for the youth involved; with remaining proceeds distributed as follows:
 - 15% to the Supreme Champion Cow
 - 15% to the Supreme Champion Heifer
 - 15% to the Supreme Champion Showman
 - 55% will be distributed in equal shares at one share per head excluding Supreme Champion animals.
 - Champion payouts to be a maximum $1,500 per individual. Remaining shares to be split amongst the remaining exhibitors on a 1 share per head basis, excluding champion entries. Maximum payout of $500 per share. Any amount exceeding maximum payouts will go to Gratiot Dairy 4-H Club.
- If an exhibitor wins more than one of the champions (cow, heifer or showman) the exhibitor will only receive one 15% share and the other 15% won will be added to the remaining shares divide. That would result in 70% instead of 55%.
- All dairy exhibitors are required to be present for the dairy department photograph, in the proper show attire, after the dairy show and are required to be present in the sale ring for the dairy bucket during the auction.
- ALL dairy cattle are to remain at fair all week.
- Exhibitors with lactating cows have the option to bring in lactating cows for the dairy show and then take the lactating cows back home but must keep at least one dairy heifer on exhibit for the entire week.

DOGS

Superintendent: Martha Stellow

Assistant Superintendent: Linda Morrow

- Copies of inoculations certificates must be uploaded and current/to-date during registration.
- Dogs must be owned or in possession of the exhibitor by MAY 5.
- Dogs must be 1 year old or older to participate in the GCFFY Dog Show.
- An exhibitor is allowed to show two dogs in all classes except for Showmanship and must declare which dog is the “primary” dog the day of the show during registration.
- Exhibitors must maintain complete control of their dog at all times and any excessive aggression will be subject for dismissal. Any dog showing signs of aggression or nervousness may be asked to wear a muzzle or to leave. If a dog is required to wear a muzzle, please note that the muzzle is not optional. Removal of the muzzle may only be done with the permission of the Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent. If a dog is asked to leave due to aggression, this decision will be final. In the case of aggression toward a person or another dog, the participant will be asked to forfeit all ribbons and placing’s and the dog will not be allowed to return to the GCFFY Dog Program. In both instances, the decision is up to the discretion of the Superintendent/Assistant Superintendent. Signs of aggression and nervousness are explained as, but not limited to growling, biting, lunging, panting, lip licking, hard stare, and extreme resistance.
- Exhibitor’s dogs may only be handled by the exhibitor, by exhibitor’s guardians/parents or an adult volunteer.
- No dog shall be tethered during the GCFFY Dog Show. If participant cannot hold the dog, a crate must be provided.
- No loose dogs or off leash exercises, unless the student is under the direct supervision of an eligible GCFFY Volunteer. Any dog that cannot be controlled by the handler will not be allowed to participate.
- Superintendent reserves the right to combine any class with less than three exhibitors.
- All dogs must be registered one-half hour before dog show/program is scheduled.
- Appropriate leads and collars must be used in the show ring. This means a buckle collar with no tags for the obstacle course and a buckle or choke collar and six-foot leash for obedience. A show lead is recommended for showmanship.
- Appearance of the Handler: The handler should appear neat and well groomed. The entire picture of the dog and handler should be one of symmetry and be appealing to the judge. Girls must wear dresses or skirts of knee length or longer or dress pants. Tops must maintain an appropriate neckline and not show any skin at the lower edge. Boys must wear dress pants or slacks, and dress shirts. Jacket and tie are optional. Recommended shoes include tennis shoes or soft-soled shoes. Clothing color should complement the dog but not necessarily match the dog. Blue jeans are not considered appropriate attire for any handler. Handlers must not wear high heels, sandals, or another unsafe footwear. Inappropriate attire includes hat, gloves, and clothing with commercial advertising, or jewelry that might disturb other competitors or dogs. Sunglasses, indoors or outdoors, are not considered appropriate. Clothing should not distract, limit, or hinder the judge’s view of the team. Handlers are to use good judgment concerning any makeup or accessories and in styling hair away from their face.
- Dogs in season may be shown. They will be judged last in a designated area and must be kept away from the judging area, or they will be disqualified. The dogs should be given a bath before going to the fairgrounds and while on the fairgrounds they should wear female dog garment.
- Dogs should be brought to the fair only on the day of judging/dog show and for Small Animal Showmanship Sweepstakes.
- The dog show will be held in the Covered Arena.
- New dog exhibitors must be enrolled in the Wags N’ Wiggles 4-H club to exhibit at the fair.

POCKET PETS

Superintendent: Aileen Waldron

Eligible Animals in this Division are:

Amphibians/Reptiles - Lizards, Salamanders

Birds - Canaries, Cockatiels, Cockatoos, Finches, Mynahs, Parakeets, Parrots, Sugar Gliders (Michigan does not require any vaccinations or testing for pet birds to attend festivals or fairs.)

Mammals - Chinchillas, Ferrets, Gerbils, Hamsters, Hedgehogs, Mice and Rats

- The ownership deadline for all Pocket Pets is May 5 of the current fair year.
- Pocket Pets registration forms are available on the GCFFY website and due by May 5.
- Participants may exhibit only one (1) pocket pet.
- All Ferrets more than three months old in Michigan are required to be vaccinated against rabies. A completed Certificate of Vaccination must be submitted at the check-in table prior to the show in order to exhibit a ferret.
- If you cannot bring the animal to the show in its everyday housing, it is required that you bring pictures so the judge can see the animal's daily living environment.
- Sharing of project animals is not permitted.
- If needed to safely handle the animal, proper equipment must be used.
- Pocket Pet Record Book is MANDATORY. Exhibitors must keep a record of their pocket pet project using the Companion Animal-Pocket Pet Record Book located on the GCFFY website. Record book to be submitted during the Companion Animal-Pocket Pet Show check-in time as listed in the fair book.
- Exhibitors must bring animals to the show in a safe carry case appropriate to the pet. Housing and carry cases are considered separate items. Judges will determine if carry case is appropriate and safe. If the judge determines a carry case is not appropriate and safe, the exhibitor will be disqualified. This is for the protection of exhibitors and others.
- Exhibitors who bring their pets to the fairgrounds assume all risks related to health, proper handling, and security.
- Pocket Pets will be judged as ONE class. All age groups (except Peewee) will compete against one another.

Judging is based on:

- a. The exhibitor's knowledge of the animal.
- b. How well the animal is handled.
- c. Animal's Cleanliness & Grooming.
- d. Animal's general health & appearance.
- e. The animal's living habitat.

272) Pocket Pet and Pocket Pet Record Book

RABBITS & CAVIES

Superintendents: Ellie Martyn

- All rabbits and cavies must be checked in before being caged. Cages will be assigned by the superintendents.
- All rabbits exhibited must have a legible ear tattoo for identification. Ear tags are required for cavies.
- Each exhibitor is limited to EIGHT total entries in this Department. A meat pen of three rabbits or single counts as one entry.
- All breed and mixed-breed rabbits entered must be at least 12 weeks old, unless entered as a doe and litter or market pen.

STILL EXHIBIT REQUIREMENTS

Chairperson: Kristin Davenport

- All still exhibits must be registered through gffy.fairentry.com by July 1
- Exhibitors are limited to 10 projects per still exhibit department unless otherwise stated in the department rules.
- All Exhibits must have a fully completed entry tag attached. Entry tags will be available at the first clean up night before fair.
- All exhibitors must bring their own project and speak in person with a judge during the scheduled judging time at the Covered Arena, unless approved by Still Exhibit addendum. Information can be found in the Still Exhibit Auction section below.
- Exhibits may be made at home, at school, during a club meeting, etc.
- ALL still exhibit entries must be the work of the exhibitor and exhibited only one time, unless otherwise noted in the appropriate department and section rules.
- It is the exhibitor and family's responsibility to move still exhibit project to and from exhibit barn for the still exhibit sale.
- Exhibitors that have items that are too large to exhibit in the arena must stand in line and then the judge will come out to your project.
- Exhibits must be taken to the appropriate department in the exhibit barns after judging to be displayed for the week of fair. If the project was held back for final judging, you must return to the arena between 12:00 p.m. to get your project to display it in the correct barn.
- Projects are displayed at the exhibitor's own risk.
- Extra-large or valuable items may be replaced by at least an 8"x10" photograph, exhibit tag and ribbons after judging to be displayed.

STILL EXHIBIT AUCTION

- An exhibitor may sell ONE lot in this sale.
- Exhibitors must pre-register their sale item online through gffy.fairentry.com for the Still Exhibit Auction. The day of judging you MUST check in with the clerk to sign into the sale list with your approval of the item you will be selling; changes to your auction item can be made at this time. Exhibitors who fail to check-in with the clerk by the end of Still Exhibit Judging or NOON Saturday will NOT sell in the Still Exhibit Auction.
- Exhibitors who are participating in a state or national level event that conflicts with the still exhibit judging process on Saturday, July 11, 2026, but still wish to sell in the sale on Sunday, July 12, 2026, must complete the Still Exhibit Absentee Application. The completed application and required items must be submitted to the fair office by June 1st. The application can be found on the fair's website (www.gffy.org) under the Registration Dates/Fair Forms tab. The fair board will review each application at the June meeting and make their final decision if the exhibitor is eligible or not.
- If the exhibitor is claimed as eligible, they may select one item to exhibit and they will not be eligible for any awards but can still sell in the auction. Exhibitor must be present for the still exhibit sale. After the sale the exhibit must be displayed in the exhibit barns for the week of fair as normal. The exhibitor must schedule a time to come to the fair office and exhibit their project by Monday, June 30, 2025 during posted office hours. From there the office will submit the exhibitor into the sale via Fair Entry.

- Exhibitor must sign up for a barn security shift to sell in the still exhibit auction. If the exhibitor, or someone from family to represent, doesn't show up for their time slot the exhibitor will not be paid from the still exhibit auction.
- Peeweese are not eligible to sell.
- All food items sold must be a duplicate of the project the exhibitor had judged. All food items must be whole or at least a full dozen and must have recipe attached. The attached recipe card should be a standard sized recipe card. All food items must have been safely stored (ex. kept refrigerated if needed).
- If you are selling a still exhibit, you may make a duplicate item to be sold and given to the buyer the night of the sale. If you choose not to make a duplicate item for the sale you will need to tell the superintendent of the department at the time of judging that you will be removing the item for the sale. The buyer will not be given the item the day of the sale (unless you made a duplicate item).
- A form will be provided at auction registration for youth to give to the buyer outlining how the project will be delivered by the exhibitor after fair week and for the exhibitor to get information from the buyer. The still exhibit item must be returned to the exhibit building and remain at the fair. The form can also be found at www.gcffy.org, under "Registration Dates/Fair Forms." It is the exhibitor's responsibility to pick up the item when exhibits are released and take the item to the buyer.
- Exhibitors, who do not deliver sold projects within one week of exhibit release, will forfeit their sale proceeds.
- The exhibitor must be present to sell their project.
- A 5% commission will be deducted from all sale lots by GCFFY.
- The sale lots are assigned alphabetically by last name with odd years starting with "A" and even years starting with "Z" and going in reverse.
